Teen Driving Laws and Codes

Secondary Laws

§ 46.2-334.01. Licenses issued to persons less than 19 years old subject to certain restrictions.

Any learner's permit or driver's license issued to any person less than 18 years old shall be subject to the following:

1st Offense Moving Violation:

Driver's School

2nd Offense Moving Violation:

License suspended for 90 days
(Restricted license can be obtained.)

3rd Offense Moving Violation:

License suspended for 1 year or until driver reaches 18 years of age (whichever is longer.)

During 1st year of license only one passenger allowed under 18 years old.
During 2nd year of license or until 18, three passengers allowed.

For the purposes of this subsection, "members of the driver's family or household" means (i) the driver's spouse, children, stepchildren, brothers, sisters, half brothers, half sisters, and any individual who has a child in common with the driver, whether or not they reside in the same home with the driver; (ii) the driver's brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law who reside in the same home with the driver; and (iii) any individual who cohabits with the driver, and any children of such individual residing in the same home with the driver.

The holder of a provisional driver's license shall not operate a motor vehicle on the highways of the Commonwealth between the hours of midnight and 4:00 a.m. except when driving (i) to or from a place of business where he is employed; (ii) to or from a school-sponsored activity; (iii) accompanied by a parent, a person acting in loco parentis, or by a spouse who is 18 years old or older, provided that such person accompanying the driver is actually occupying a seat beside the driver and is lawfully permitted to operate a motor vehicle at the time; or (iv) in cases of emergency, including response by volunteer firefighters and volunteer rescue squad personnel to emergency calls.

Cell Phone Use while Driving

Except in a driver emergency or when the vehicle is lawfully parked or stopped, the holder of a provisional driver's license shall not operate a motor vehicle on the highways of the Commonwealth while using any cellular telephone or any other wireless telecommunications device, regardless of whether such device is or is not hand-held.
